MYEC'S ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MEMBERS WAS HELD

Mid-Yellowstone Electric held it's 84th Annual Meeting on Tuesday, March 21st at the Hysham High School multi-purpose room at 6:00 p.m.

When the meeting began, members heard reports from their President Tim Fulton, CEO Jason Brothen, and Auditor Brian VanSteeland. Lower Yellowstone Rural Electric's (LYREC) Trustee, Greg Rauschendorfer, also spoke to MYEC's members about how significant it has been, and continues to be, to have the shared services with MYEC and LYREC.

Scholarship winners were announced. Winners of the MYEC Scholarships, chosen from the MECA applications, were: $1,000 Brianna Price and $500 Austin Brewer, both from Forsyth. Brianna's application has been sent on to MECA to be considered at the state level. Basin Electric Power Cooperative $1,000 scholarship winner was Brianna Rainey from Forsyth. Two $1,000 Luck of the Draw Scholarships were drawn for during the meeting. Winners were Austin Brewer (left) and Adi Gamble (right). Pictures shown below are of CEO Brothen congratulating each winner.

Attorney Jesse Myers gave the results of the Trustee Election which was voted on by mail-in balloting. Re-elected to District #6 was Tim Fulton. Re-elected to District #3 was Dick Pinkerton. Reese Stahl was elected as the new Trustee for District #1.

Door prizes were drawn during the evening.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider and employer.
